

District Grant Report

Rotary Club: Buena Park Rotary Club

Project Title: Books and Bags for Babies

Progress Report Final Report

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?
This project will provide parent resources and baby board books for parents of newborns in BP. On 8/6/16, Acacia Quilt Guild made 110 bags.

In November 2016, the Women's Club wove the ribbons into the bag tops so they can be cinched.
In the meantime, books have been ordered online and they are enrooted to be received.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project?
Four (4) Rotarians participated in a workshop on Oct. 24, 2016. One Rotarian ordered the books online.

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.
Three Rotarians attended the District workshop meeting in Santa Ana and signed the MOU for the District Grant Application.
At the workshop, we wrote the District Grant Application.
Rotarians participated in the making of the book bags at the Acacia Quilt Guild workshop on August 6, 2016.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project?
We anticipate that 110 non-Rotarian families will benefit from this project.

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?
Newborns in Buena Park and their families will be benefited by the information in the Parent Resource books and the baby board books will promote literacy.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?
Acacia Quilt Guild sewed 110 book bags. The Women's Club strung the bags.
