

Lighting concept has the string of overhead lighting swirling through the site with many strands. The strands radiate outward from the Charlotte location and are represented in red highlighting.

For the purposes of calculation it is assumed that the height of the horizontal strands will be approximately 9' high. Field verification will be necessary to establish what height is most appropriate for minimizing tree canopy conflicts.

The alignment as well will need adjustment to avoid tree canopy conflicts.

Initial Conceptual Sketch of Light Strand With Column