Project Title: Helping Hands for the Santiago Foundation, Manzanilla, Mexico

Project Description

1. Describe the project. What was done, when, and where did project activities take place?

The Santiago Foundation supports education and trade training for young people and adults to expand their skills and opportunities. The Foundation operates two centers in Manzanillo, Mexico, that provide after school training programs; in job related skills and training, in craft skills that teach and foster both regional and Mexican culture. Foundation monies provide scholarships for promising students to complete secondary school or a university education. As many as 600 students may be served by the various programs in a typical year.

2. How many people benefited from this project? Up to 600

3. Who were the beneficiaries, how were they impacted by this project, and what humanitarian need was met?

Young people and adults in Manzanillo, Mexico who need job-related skills and training.

4. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 1 club member and 1 former club member

5. What did they do? Please give at least two examples, not including financial support provided to the project.

Heather Flynn, who submitted the grant, traveled several times during the year to visit the Santiago Foundation and matched the club's gift in terms of time, and talent, as well as financial. The Santiago Foundation was founded by a former AER club member Linda Applegate. Former Microsoft President Mike Murray and his wife Joyce are board members.
