

WHY READ TO BABIES?

80% of brain development is established by age 3 years. Lack of stimulation is the leading cause of developmental delay in children.

Children love getting books in the mail. Parents love the convenience. Children beg parents to read their new book – over & over!

Children learn naturally when parents make books and reading time FUN.

