Project Title: 2013 Vocational Service Project with Working Wardrobes and the Salvation Army

☐ Progress Report ☒ Final Report

Project Description

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?

The Salvation Army provided the clients who were all male residents of their facility in Anaheim. Their ages ranged from 19 to 49 and all were all enrolled in Salvation Army's Work Therapy program. Each Saturday, at the Anaheim facility, three to four Success Coaches from the Newport Beach Rotary club conducted 90-minute workshops designed to teach and build confidence in the clients for their job search.

Workshop topics included skills identification/transference, self presentation skills, filling out job applications, interviewing skills, business environment, budgeting, and vision mapping. Our clients were able to apply these skills almost immediately because each would be moving into "halfway" facilities with a matter of weeks and one requirement in that transition is employment.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project?

53

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.

Club members participated in a number of ways. Those included, clothing donation, workshop coaches, personal shoppers at Success Day, and attending graduation ceremonies.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project?

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?

These clients will be successful in transitioning back into the workforce. In addition, these clients will be reunited with their families who may have been unwilling to tolerate circumstances that lead to being admitted to a recovery program.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

Working wardrobes provided the training for our club members as coaches and the curriculum for the workshops. In addition they partnered with our club on a "Success Day" where are clients were outfitted with a new suit of clothes. The Salvation Army arranged for our clients to enroll in the workshops.
