Rotary Club: Mesa West Rotary

Project Title: Music Learning

Project Description

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done (in 100 words or less)?

United Sound teaches music to special needs children is in need of curriculum books to run their program. Mesa West will purchase the items needed for the lessons including method books. The children in need will be joined by students who already have learned music as part of the teaching. When (dates) and where (city, state and country) did project activities take place?

Rotarians and their families completed the books on October 27, 2017.

Who were the beneficiaries? Children with special needs.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 7 + family

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.

Rotarians and their families help to put together the method books used by students with special needs. This included placing stickers in books and getting other supplemental materials prepared and put into the books.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? 200+

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?

Books will be used by students with special needs to learn an instrument of their choice with help from their peer mentors. United Sound students will perform with the rest of the school band or orchestra in at least 2 concerts per year that are open to the public.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?
