We painted the entire exterior of the cabin, including trim. We washed windows inside and out, washed the interior walls, bunks, and scrubbed the floor. We purchased 16 new mattresses for the bunk beds. We purchased materials to rebuild the porch cover. We hired an electrician to move the cabin heater to a safer location.

A local contractor, whose children go to Camp Child in the summer, rebuilt the porch cover on a volunteer basis. He made 8 trips to plan and complete the work, with each trip being 50 miles round trip.

We plan to arrange for additional work on the cabin heater and rewire the outlet for the refrigerator/freezer in the camp lodge if we can get a contractor to go to camp in December.

Give examples of how Rotarians have directly participated in this project:

Seven Rotarians participated in the annual clean-up and maintenance day in May. They did the painting and cleaning described above. Two Rotarians have done the oversight, ordering, and monitoring of contractors to accomplish the project.

Approximately 62 hours of service have been provided by Rotarians on the project.
Approximately 55 hours of service were provided by the contractor who volunteered to design and rebuild the porch cover.
