Not at this time. When this student returns to Jackson at the break or in the summer, she is invited to report to us and present at our Club to give us an update.

12. What worked well on this project and why?

We reviewed numerous applications, but once determined who our desired recipient was, the request and funding was simple. Our portion of this money was raised by Rotarians selling sponsored sled-banners through our main winter fundraiser – the Annual Sled Dog Race in Downtown Jackson that spans 4 states. It is the largest sled-dog race outside of the Iditarod. We do this fundraiser every year so that we later have funds to select such a recipient.

13. What did not work well and how would you suggest improving it?

Selling banners is sometimes difficult during the holiday. The race is the last week of January each year.

14. How was this project publicized?

Sled Dog Banner sales – every Rotarian calls the list of recognized prior sponsors and potential businesses to obtain sponsor commitments.

This project is publicized as a potential scholarship at Jackson Hole High School.
