GIFT ITEM RECEIPT

DATE: Sept 17, 2014

NAME OF DONOR: Christy Murphy PHONE: 530-63-7147

ADDRESS: _____

The above named individual has purchased donated books or other items to the public libraries of the City and Borough of Juneau. The listing and/or estimate of the number of books or other items and the determination of their value has been prepared by the donor. The library does not evaluate gifts for income tax purposes. (See IRS publication 561 titled Valuation of Donated Property for further information in regard to deducting donations from income taxes.)

Gift books and other informational materials are added to the library collection according to the selection criteria stated in the library's collection development policy. Items not added may be turned over to Friends of the Library for their book sale. Proceeds are used by the Friends group to benefit the three public libraries of Juneau.

Gifts of computer equipment suitable for library use are accepted by the technology staff with the understanding that parts or components not needed will be disposed of or passed on to others at the library's discretion.

Questions regarding donations should be directed to the Administrative Office at 586-5324 prior to bringing the material to the library.

(Donor may list or estimate items below and/or attach separate pages.)
