

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role? Save the Family, a non profit in Mesa, AZ assisted by identifying the opportunity to assist incoming families and suggesting the specific needs for same when they are initially assigned to their temporary lodging unit.