Young children in four elementary schools in the remote Jamao Afuera area of the Dominican Republic were impacted and helped by this project. These children did not have access to adequate school supplies, so our Rotary Club donated many of the essential school supplies. They can now enjoy access to basic education.

5. What did they do? Please give at least two examples, not including financial support provided to the project.

Rotarians of the Rotary Club of Westchester, NY helped purchase, pack, distribute and organize the school supplies. Together we helped pack over 15 suitcases filled with school supplies. Members gathered to safely organize, arrange and pack the suitcases. Some members also traveled all the way to the Dominican Republic to personally distribute the school supplies.

The local school authorities and parents helped to organize the distribution of the supplies to the children.
