Project Title: Provide Scholarships for Students where finances are the barrier to participating in activities

Project Description

1. Describe the project. What was done, when, and where did project activities take place?

This project is an on-going commitment to helping students participate in programs/activities within the community. The activities vary from group functions, such as Girls on the Run, The high school choir program to individuals enrolling in gymnastics.

2. How many people benefited from this project? 50+

3. Who were the beneficiaries, how were they impacted by this project, and what humanitarian need was met?

Rotary 2000 believes it is imperative to a child's success to be involved in extra-curricular activities to develop social and communication skills, connections within the community, to build a sense of belonging and to build confidence.

4. How many Rotarians participated in the project? n/a

5. What did they do? Please give at least two examples, not including financial support provided to the project.

Rotarians receive an at least annual report on our scholarship program (we keep individual recipients confidential) but disclose number and type of scholarships awarded. We also have larger program recipients, such as Girls on the Run, come to present on their program at a Rotary meeting. Rotary 2000 members are aware of our scholarship program and the impact we have on the community.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

Rotary 2000 encourages various types of organizations to enroll in the scholarship program so we can reach as many students as possible.
