Dear AMBER,

Please see below for your confirmed flight schedule. I found Lufthansa flights at a much lower fare! On this one the change fee is only $130.00. As you can see you won't arrive into Port Elizabeth until Jan. 28. If you need to get there before then, let me know and I can back up the departure from the US to a day before. If this all works, then I just need a credit card for payment. Keep in mind, there will be two tickets issued, one on Lufthansa and one on the South African Airways leg.

Alex

Please read the itinerary printout remarks for important visa, seating, immigration, baggage allowance information and fare rules.

Carefully review:

- Name(s) must match Passport Name exactly as shown
- Correct arrival and departure dates
- Please check for any inoculations your travel listed below may require.
- Advise applicable frequent flyer mileage number(s)
- Email me authorization to issue tickets or advise if any adjustment is required.

Travel policy decisions are made based on the lowest cost and available space at the time the travel request is received. Since airline availability and airfares change frequently, accurate comparisons for travel requests received at different times cannot be made.

The total cost of the ticket: $1760.10USD plus $140.00 service fee.

PLEASE NOTE: the ticket issue deadline: 22NOV before 4 P.M. CST.

Once the air ticket(s) has/have been issued, RITS will send your EInvoice via email with a PDF attachment. The PDF attachment may be used as your eticket. No paper tickets will be sent.

Thank you for your earliest reply.
