Project Title: P-803 Reading in the 21st Century

Progress Report Final Report

Project Description

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?

We had a few glitches with GESD IT but we have them worked out. Kindles and ebooks have been purchased. Reading teacher, Joanna Aguirre, has been involved in the selection of books with Rotarian, Gina Schmitz. Official rollout to students to take place on Friday, April 8th at 8:00.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 8

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.

1. Distribute e-readers to students and discuss uses of technology and opportunities that technology provides.
2. Participate in class discussions and class book ordered - Unbroken by Laura Hillendbrand (WWII story of survival and resilience & redemption). Rotary values will be woven in as well as adult perspectives and experiences which may align or not with students viewpoints. References to critical skills which will be embedded.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? 125 this

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?

The long term impact is to enhance literacy and technology skills in students from poverty which are currently reading behind the state averages. The technology and books have connections to content areas of social studies but also real life.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

Glendale ELementary School District will upkeep the technology after purchased.
