Rotary Club:	vices Iso e skills ost, , food es.
Project Title: Progress Report Project Description 1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place who were the beneficiaries? The Empowering Youth for the Future program provides homeles youth with housing, food, clothing, hygiene items, and school supplies. HYC assists in finding sent to ensure that each student receives the support required to graduate from high school. EYFTF a provides a wide range of services, including tutoring, medical care, counseling, mentoring, and life training. To address housing needs, HYC has implemented a Host Family model. Host homes are a low-community-engaging strategy to address the immediate need without incurring the high costs of operating an emergency shelter or transitional housing program. The host family provides shelter and sometimes transportation for youth, while the organization delivers case management services. 2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. 4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of you not secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAS (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework	vices Iso e skills ost, , food es.
Project Description 1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place who were the beneficiaries? The Empowering Youth for the Future program provides homeles youth with housing, food, clothing, hygiene items, and school supplies. HYC assists in finding sent to ensure that each student receives the support required to graduate from high school. EYFTF a provides a wide range of services, including tutoring, medical care, counseling, mentoring, and life training. To address housing needs, HYC has implemented a Host Family model. Host homes are a low-community-engaging strategy to address the immediate need without incurring the high costs of operating an emergency shelter or transitional housing program. The host family provides shelter and sometimes transportation for youth, while the organization delivers case management services. 2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. 4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth on to secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework.	vices Iso e skills ost, , food es.
Project Description 1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place who were the beneficiaries? The Empowering Youth for the Future program provides homeless youth with housing, food, clothing, hygiene items, and school supplies. HYC assists in finding sent to ensure that each student receives the support required to graduate from high school. EYFTF a provides a wide range of services, including tutoring, medical care, counseling, mentoring, and life training. To address housing needs. HYC has implemented a Host Family model. Host homes are a low-community-engaging strategy to address the immediate need without incurring the high costs of operating an emergency shelter or transitional housing program. The host family provides shelter and sometimes transportation for youth, while the organization delivers case management services. 2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. 4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth according training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework	vices Iso e skills ost, , food es.
1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place who were the beneficiaries? The Empowering Youth for the Future program provides homelest youth with housing, food, clothing, hygiene items, and school supplies. HYC assists in finding sent to ensure that each student receives the support required to graduate from high school. EYFTF a provides a wide range of services, including tutoring, medical care, counseling, mentoring, and life training. To address housing needs, HYC has implemented a Host Family model. Host homes are a low-community-engaging strategy to address the immediate need without incurring the high costs of operating an emergency shelter or transitional housing program. The host family provides shelter and sometimes transportation for youth, while the organization delivers case management services. 2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. 4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth on to secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework averages). Fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework averages).	vices Iso e skills ost, , food es.
who were the beneficiaries? The Empowering Youth for the Future program provides nomeles youth with housing, food, clothing, hygiene items, and school supplies. HYC assists in finding sent to ensure that each student receives the support required to graduate from high school. EYFTF a provides a wide range of services, including tutoring, medical care, counseling, mentoring, and life training. To address housing needs, HYC has implemented a Host Family model. Host homes are a low-community-engaging strategy to address the immediate need without incurring the high costs of operating an emergency shelter or transitional housing program. The host family provides shelter and sometimes transportation for youth, while the organization delivers case management services. 2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. 4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth value your expects. The expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth your expects. The expect of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth your expects. The expect of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth your expects. The expect of the project?	vices Iso e skills ost, , food es.
community-engaging strategy to address the immediate need without incurring the nigh costs of operating an emergency shelter or transitional housing program. The host family provides shelter and sometimes transportation for youth, while the organization delivers case management service. 2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples. HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. 4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of youth on to secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homeworks.	, food es.
 What did they do? Please give at least two examples. HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of you to secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework. 	acciet with
HYC has been supported by numerous Rotary Clubs. Members serve on the Board of Directors, committees and program development, as well as support fundraising events. 4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? The EYFTF program assisted more homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of you not o secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework	acclet with homeless youth ages 13 to 19 throughout the West Valley. 5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project? Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of you on to secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework	assist Will
Program success is measured by the number of youth who graduate, as well as the number of your on to secondary education, vocational training or the military. Factors such as improved GPAs (gaverages), fewer absences, active classroom and campus participation, and turning in homework	than 250 indicators the programs are producing the right results. Success is measured by our ability to producational, social and recreational activities that improve a teen's social development, build their confidence, and improves their decision-making skills, in addition to exposing them to life choice that will expand their horizons to future opportunities.	rade point are speci ovide r self-
 Program goals include: 260 homeless youth will receive basic needs, including clothing, food, hygiene products and supplies. 50 homeless youth will participate in life skills programs. 15 homeless youth will receive housing through the Host Family program. 	chool
6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role? HYC works with Phoenix Workforce Connections, West-MEC, local military recruitment offices an County community colleges. HYC is in the process of expanding our partners to include local trad and specialty colleges. HYC provides mentors to help youth develop a step-by-step process for a their plan for the future. Mentors are members of the ecumenical community, service organization community volunteers.	le unions chieving

144 3
3.
4.
5.	11
6	150
Total Project Expenditures	9 1750
By signing this report, I confirm that to the best of my knowledge these District Grant funds wer ligible items in accordance with Trustee-approved guidelines, and that all of the information contain courate. Receipts for all grant-funded expenditures have been uploaded to the project web thotographs submitted in connection with this report will become the property of RI and will not be win all rights in the photographs, including copyright, and hereby grant RI and TRF a royalty free me photographs now or at any time in the future, throughout the world in any manner it so choose nown or later developed. This includes the right to modify the photograph(s) as necessary in RI's includes, without limitation, use on or in the web sites, magazines, brochures, pamphlets, exhibition formational materials of RI and TRF. Certifying Signature Print name, Rotary title, and club	site. I also understand that all returned. I warrant that I irrevocable license to use s and in any medium now sole discretion. This also