The map, made of wood, is currently in production in Kearney. Once it is done, the signages will be installed, the magnets or Velcro attached to the felt objects (corn, cows, horses etc. and the map will be placed near the ag section of the Kearney Area Children's museum. It is expected that the map will be ready for the children by the time the next school year begins in August 2016.

2. How many people benefited from this project?

About 2500
visitors per year

3. Who were the beneficiaries, how were they impacted by this project, and what humanitarian need was met?

About 2000 children per year will learn more about the ag sector. The ag sector being one of the most critical sectors for the state of Nebraska, this project will enhance the learning among children at an early age, and meets one of the areas of focus of Rotary – Literacy.

4. How many Rotarians participated in the project?

1 Rotarian and 5 Rotaractors were involved in the project.

5. What did they do? Please give at least two examples, not including financial support provided to the project.

So far the Rotarian and the Rotaractors were involved in designing the project. More will participate when the map has to be installed on the wall of the museum.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

Kearney Area Children's museum were involved in approving the design and as the beneficiary
