Project Mercy, a 501 C (3) non-profit agency in San Diego, proved to be a very professional organization with a lot of heart. Their goal is the improvement of basic living standards and quality of life for impoverished families in the poor colonias of east Tijuana, Mexico. They facilitated the purchase of the necessary material and provided the basic building plan to build a sturdy home for a family with an outdoor toilette. The Francis Parker High School Interact Club and the Robotic Club were instrumental in completing the project. They came with experience and a ready to work attitude. It was a very rewarding experience.
