Rotary Club: Kenai River Rotary

Project Title: The Guatemala Literacy Project

Project Description

1. Describe the project. What was done, when, and where did project activities take place?

The project provided resources such as textbooks so students in Guatemala gain skills that enable them to compete for better jobs and break the cycle of poverty

2. How many people benefited from this project? 50 to 100's

3. Who were the beneficiaries, how were they impacted by this project, and what humanitarian need was met?

The immediate beneficiaries of this project are the students in Guatemala that received the textbooks. These textbooks will be used for the next 5 years. After that period, the monies from the rent will be able to purchase new textbooks to keep the program sustainable. This will lead to the students gaining skills, improving literacy, obtaining better jobs and finally breaking the poverty chain.

The Rotarian brought back several projects which the local Rotary clubs can collaborate on.

4. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 10

5. What did they do? Please give at least two examples, not including financial support provided to the project.

Club members were involved in organizing events for the project. A local Rotarian accompanied other Rotarians to Guatemala as the textbooks were delivered to the students. Upon completion of the trip, the Rotarian spoke to our club and the other surrounding clubs in the area about her experiences.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

CoEd (Cooperative for Education), Ohio Based company who has organized the GLP (Guatemala Literacy Project) since 1998,
