Dear Friends,

Thank you for your contribution of $1,100.00 on 12/13/2017. We will allocate $600.00 to provide a junior high school for Mariana Torres Cruz. Your generosity provides school registration and lab fees, school uniforms and shoes, gym clothes and tennis shoes, school supplies, the cost of transportation to and from school, one hot meal a day, and tutoring and mentoring sessions at weekly Homework Club meetings. When you sponsor a Project Amigo student, you give that young person the best chance possible to stay in school with a career goal and the leadership skills needed to achieve it.

We're grateful to you for your commitment to help a deserving student achieve a better future through higher education. Without this scholarship, Mariana Torres Cruz would continue to repeat the cycle of a life of poverty. You are helping to break that cycle.

Thank you also for the additional $500.00 for General Fund.

Please note: Sponsorships are not exclusive. All sponsorship funds are pooled to assure that every child and higher education student in our program receives the same benefits whether he/she has a sponsor or not. Many students in our program each year do NOT have a sponsor. That means that many other students must have more than one to assure funding is available for the incentive programs and scholarships of every student.

Gracias!

Sincerely,

Edward DeAguilera
