3. Briefly describe your project (who did what, when and where did project activities take place?) in 100 words or less.

District Grant helped provide funds to purchase materials to build a covered picnic area at Eastman Park in Buhl, Idaho. Buhl Rotary Club members worked closely with City of Buhl to determine placement location, secure permits and gather required documentation. Rotary members researched area park pavilions to determine what would be the most efficient, durable, affordable materials and design to use in construction of the Centennial Pavilion.

The Centennial Pavilion will provide shade and shelter for public community use at Eastman Park for many years to come.

5. How many Rotarians participated in the project? Briefly tell what did.

Fourteen Buhl Rotary Club members worked on the committee to provide research, gather information, talk with Buhl City Council members, order, deliver and store materials and meet with contractors, Buhl City Engineer and Public Works Supervisor.
