Project Description:

1. Describe the project. What was done, when, and where did project activities take place? If this is a progress report, what remains to be done?

The Mid-Island Rotary made the Good Counsel Homeless Pregnant Women's shelter one of our priorities to assist this fiscal year, 2022. This project is now complete. Activities took place on Staten Island, New York. This is our final report; see below:

During the holiday season, we donated previously loved items in excellent

2. How many people benefited from this project?

3. Who were the beneficiaries, how were they impacted by this project, and what humanitarian need was met?

The beneficiaries were homeless women and their children, ages new born to 5-years of age at the Good Counsel Home for Homeless Pregnant Women. Their organizations, Staten Island Branch houses up to 10-women. We provided them with clothing, bed linen, metro cards, and other items needed to help them with

4. How many Rotarians participated in the project?

5. What did they do? Please give at least two examples, not including financial support provided to the project.

We presented each woman with an full set of linens for their beds. Each linen sets included: a set of bedsheets, bed skirts, pillow cases, shams and a reversable comforter. We purchased ten sets, one for each current resident, and one for the incoming resident. Each linen set varied in style to allow each woman at the shelter to choose the set which matched her own personality. It was our intent to increase

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

This was a Mid-Island #27491. Members and their families helped.
